Last week after Mass Fr David set up for the Baptism that we had that afternoon, he needed to do this as it was a tight schedule. He was very sad and indeed hurt to find just before the Baptism that somebody had thrown away the baptism service sheets. This unfortunately is not the first time that this had happened. He eventually located them in one of the paladin bins and with great difficulty recovered them, just as the family were arriving. For this to happen Obviously, some misunderstanding has arisen and so if the person who threw them away could have word with him, we can clear the misunderstanding and prevent this happening in the future. It sadly marred what was a wonderful baptism.
